

CROSSING CULTURES RESEARCH GROUP
Religion, Colonialism and Nationalism, and Gender

Wednesday 11 September 1-4.30pm
Pathfoot C1

1.00-1.30pm – Lunch

1.30pm – 2.10pm

Claudia Marqués Martín – Fascist nationalisms in women's writing in Spain during and after the Civil War

Bashir Saade – Chasing the ghost of “religion” in the study of sectarianism. Bashir will also speak briefly about the Critical Religion website

Peter Baker - Indigenous film and media. Peter will also like speak briefly about the relaunch of the Postcolonial Studies website at Stirling.

Malory Nye – Race and whiteness in the context of RELIGION

2.15 pm – 2.50pm

Richard Roberts - The global migration of what I would call 'spiritual body practices', i.e. reflection and theorisation based on long term experience/fieldwork in three fields

Andrew Hass - Cross-cultural shifts in the way we understand and engage with both music and religion/spirituality

Zhe Gao - Complicated implications of the three terms 'religion', 'colonialism' and 'nationalism' in modern China, that is, the ideologically manipulated nature of their boundaries between each other

2.55pm – 3.30pm

Fiona Barclay – Catholicism in and after French Algeria

Bill Kidd – A neglected aspect of the pied-noir diaspora - where did the Protestants go?

Alison Jasper – What the case of Shamima Begum might say about religion, gender and Britishness

3.35pm – 4.10pm

Toni Hastrup - Countering violent extremism and women in peace and security

Fiona Darroch – Nationalism, religion and gender in N. Ireland. Reading Anna Burns Milkman (2018)

Raquel de Pedro Ricoy - The role of ad hoc Peruvian female indigenous interpreters in facilitating access to human rights

4.15pm – 4.30pm

Conclusions and moving forward for ‘Crossing Cultures’